

Senior Activity Center 2020 Volunteer of the Year Award

The importance of volunteers to our Center cannot be overestimated or overvalued assets. It is with profound gratitude the Senior Activity Center proudly announces Andy Guerra as the 2020 Volunteer Award Recipient.

ISU Journalism BA 1972, Certified Career workshop trainer, retired from the Department Of Labor 1973-1998 where he was involved with economic development, adult/youth training programs and reviewing unemployment claims, job seeking workshop trainer.

U.S. Government Federal Grant Reviewer. Pocatello Marshall Public Library Trustee—2004-2014 City of Pocatello appointee. 1999-2002 graduate from the Idaho Department of Commerce Economic Development Rural/Urban program. 1998 Idaho State University Alumni College of Arts and Sciences Professional Achievement Award and KIFI Channel 8 award for Eight Who Make a Difference in S. Eastern Idaho.

Over thirty years of community volunteerism: rural health boards, NAACP, Image Sudeste Hispanic Scholarship/Civil Rights Chapter, Camp Fire, INEL, Center for Disease and Control, ACLU to the Pocatello Police Chief advisory citizen board and H&W Regional VI Drug/Alcohol Task Force. Published news stories in Pocatello's Idaho State Journal and statewide Spanish/English bilingual newspaper IDAHO UNIDO.

Currently, Andy is the secretary of the statewide INTERMOUNTAIN FAIR HOUSING COUNCIL, based in Boise, member of the NAACP Law Enforcement committee, etc. He has served on diversity, law enforcement, drug/alcohol, Police advisory committees, Center of Disease, INEL, etc. the past 40 plus years and grant writer.

Andy has been volunteering at the Senior Center since 2016....data entry of center and curbside meals; cashier at the Friday and Saturday night dances until the dances were cancelled due to Covid 19 March 2020. He does press releases on center activities, created a Covid safety plan draft for when the center reopens and staff training modules when requested.

Return to Home Page